Pastor's Message

Timothy Merrill wrote:

Here's the deal: Lent is properly about three things: Ceasing to do wrong things, starting to do right things, and confessing one's failure at both. -

Homiletics February 2012

Dear Friends,

We are now in Lent. Let me share a little about this season in the church. First, Lent is not mentioned in the Bible. The early Church invented it. One of the earliest mentions of "Lent" can be found in some obscure canons of The Council of Nicea (A.D. 325) which say that two provincial synods should be held each year, "one before the 40 days of Lent." So, Lent is 40 days – or 6 weeks of 6 days - (not including Sundays) from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday. The 40 days is probably a reference/symbol of Jesus' 40 days of testing in the wilderness after his baptism. In the Sixth Century, Pope Gregory writing to Augustine of Canterbury, shows how Lent had taken a dietary turn: "We abstain from flesh, meat and from all things that come from flesh, as milk, cheese and eggs." As a result, people abstain during Lent. I grew up hearing how my Catholic schoolmates were going to "give up" something for Lent. Merrill continues:

That's why I am not giving up anything for Lent. Not giving up watching TV. Not giving up cheeseburgers, French fries. Not giving up a half-caff, half-fat, soy latte grande with rose scented syrup and vegan dark-chocolate biscotti. Not giving up sodas. And if I liked beer, I wouldn't be giving up beer, either. Not giving up reading, exercise, eating, sleeping, sleeping in, e-mail. Not giving up iPod, iPhone or iPad (okay, I don't have an iPad).

Doth I protest too much? I guess dogging Lent is almost as bad as dissing Mom, apple pie and "the American Way of Life."

That's why giving up chocolate and coffee is just silly and trivializes the season. Instead, I should take a close look at giving up what's important -- things like pride, arrogance, impatience, ingratitude--and the list could go on forever. I should also seize Lent as yet another opportunity to start doing what is right, and at the same time confess that I have failed to adequately do either one of these things.

By the way, half-caff, latte grandes are not the only things I am NOT giving up. I am not giving up faith, hope and charity. I am not giving up prayer, friends and friendships. I am not giving up on a future of peace and goodwill. And I am not giving up my belief that someday the Cubs will win the pennant. I am not giving up - - period!

Finally, I am not giving up on God who moves in many miraculous ways!

How appropriate that just as Spring and it's promise of new life is nearly upon us, we are introducing new life to our ministry among ourselves and to others by embarking upon two new exciting programs here at POUCC, the first of which is SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR ALL AGES between services beginning March 4th. It has been a long-time dream of mine to be able to offer classes on Sunday mornings to adults, and thanks to your vote of support at our Annual Meeting, that day has finally arrived. For our first series of Christian Education (CE) for adults, we are offering a choice between two studies: (1) HEALING WITH THE ANGELS (Group Led); and, (2) WHEN JESUS CAME TO HARVARD (Led by Kay Russell). If you did not sign up last month and have me order your book in advance, but would like to join either one of these classes, please check with me as I may have extra books. These two classes will meet in separate locations of the sanctuary between services. Confirmands will meet in Pastor Bill's office or at the front of the sanctuary. Children other than Confirmands will continue meeting in their usual classrooms.

ANYONE NOT TAKING PART IN CLASSES HELD IN

THE SANCTUARY, PLEASE ENTER THE CHURCH BY WAY OF THE JIM REED BUILDING AND JOIN IN THE FELLOWSHIP HOUR THERE WHILE CLASSES ARE IN SESSION. THANK YOU!

By the time you read this, we will have enjoyed a fun-filled SHROVE TUESDAY together. What a "kick off" for TERRIFIC TUESDAYS, beginning March 6th, which will also offer fun activities for everyone -- including whatever group activity you "bring to the table" from 5:00-6:00 PM, such as a friendly game of cards or your favorite board game with fellow church members or with friends outside POUCC whom you are welcome to bring. Maybe this would be a good time for KNIT-WITS to meet, and for sure a perfect opportunity to share with interested youth a favorite craft or talent. Dinner will be served at 6:00 PM, followed by a short devotional and sing-along before breaking off into age-appropriate groups. Pastor Bill will lead a study group for adults, and I will meet with our Youth Group (6th Grade and above). Please call me at 295-6838 if you have younger children who will be remaining at the church after 6:30 PM while you are in class so we can provide movies or quiet-time activities for them under the guidance of an adult or older teenager. Also call me if you are someone who would be willing to supervise these children perhaps on a rotating basis.

CONFIRMANDS are encouraged to attend TERRIFIC TUESDAYS so we can meet after dinner and devotionals for Youth Group activities, or to just hang loose and relax along with your peers and Miss Beverly. This "Terrific Tuesday Time Together" will be planned by YOU -- so bring your Wish List and let's "brainstorm" together.

Please keep in mind that TERRIFIC TUESDAYS is also a wonderful opportunity to introduce neighbors and friends to POUCC who might be uncomfortable in a structured worship service. They could even just come for the gathering activities and dinner if that's what they would prefer. Good, clean fellowship and fun is a vital part of witnessing to others, and this may be God's timing and vessel for someone special to you.

COST? Although a $2.00 donation per person to cover expenses would be appreciated, it certainly is not mandatory. Also, don't forget to let us know on the sign-up sheet if you need transportation since some of you prefer not to drive at night. Obviously, I do not want any of you to have any reason whatsoever NOT to be a part of this wonderful opportunity beyond Sunday mornings for Christian fellowship and learning together as a Community in Christ. Let us start something new and wonderful together. Let us have a TERRIFIC TURNOUT for TERRIFIC TUESDAYS!

Joyfully Yours in Christ,

Beverly

THRIFT STORE NEWS

Getting to know you -

Harriet Rogers - I moved to Florida for health reasons in 1985 after living in PA, D.C., and MD where I worked for the FBI, State Department, Naval Research Laboratory, and a public school system. I gave myself three months to find a job or I would go back north. I found a job in three weeks at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. I joined the church in the late 80's after trying many in Daytona. I retired from ERAU as an Academic Adviser on Feb. 17, 2005, and married Jack Rogers on Feb. 20, 2005. Before I retired I worked in the thrift store on alternate Saturdays with Blanche for several years. Since retirement, I am working as a regular. About four years ago I volunteered to handle the incoming jewelry and prepare the display shelves for the jewelry. If you have jewelry you no longer want, please turn it into the store. Include broken pieces, pieces with missing stones or clasps, and lonely earrings because I might be able to fix it or have a matching stone or two or a matching earring. If you have not been to the thrift store, please come see us.

SPIRITUAL LIFE TEAM PROGRAM

On Saturday, March 17th from 9 AM- 4PM POUCC will be the host of a training for the Spiritual Life Team. Pastor Bill, Beverly Schafer, Sherian Buller, and Kay Russell will be in this exciting event! A description follows:

The Spiritual Life Team Program" is a transformative Lay program to build spiritual life in congregations. Dr. Bobbie McKay, UCC pastor, psychologist, author, researcher has created a special program to help people share their experiences of the Presence or Action of God in their lives. These transforming experiences bring a new spiritual vitality to the church. Dr. McKay has been building spiritual life teams at Cocoa Beach Community Church for the past 3 years and in other churches in Florida and in Illinois.

Dr. Fred Fourie, Pastor of Cocoa Beach Community Church says: "This powerful program has not only transformed the team members themselves, but it has opened the whole issue of spiritual life in the congregation as well and challenges us to truly make our church a spiritual destination for all people."

Operational Budget as of 1/31/12

ACTUAL	Budgeted Amt. thru JAN 2012	ACTUAL thru JAN 2012
Income	$ 16,466	$ 16,593
Expenses	$ 19,021	$ 13,693
Net	$ 2,555	$ 2,900

*We are doing well as far as what we budgeted for 2012. Our expenses were less than projected for January so we are off to a great start. As a reminder... our Florida Conference Dues are due in full and were sent in February. If YOU have NOT REINBURSED your dues of $14.50 per member to POUCC please try to do so as soon as possible. Also, OCWM Contributions will be sent in twice this year—February & June. Please make any contribution for this too. Respectfully submitted, Susie Greiff, Assistant Treasurer

A businessman who needed millions of dollars to clinch an important deal went to church to pray for the money. By chance he knelt next to a man who was praying for $100 to pay an urgent debt. The businessman took out his wallet and pressed $100 into the other man's hand. Overjoyed, the man got up and left the church. The businessman then closed his eyes and prayed, "And now, Lord, that I have your undivided attention"

Deacons Corner

As a member of the Port Orange United Church of Christ (POUCC), you are also in many ways an "Ambassador" for our church. As we have learned in previous teachings, our church is not the building, not the furniture and not the grounds. Our church is people—people just like you and me, who are members of a church family. Just like in any family, we need to support each other in good times and bad times. Just like a regular family we have similar challenges when someone gets sick, has an emergency, suffers a job loss, gets into an accident, suffers personal pain or is just plain feeling lost. It is our collective responsibility to help that person just as Jesus would have commanded us to do so long ago. As POUCC members and friends, the hand we extend in love and friendship is also the same hand we one day could hold out for help and assistance for ourselves. Giving is always a two-way street. What we freely do for others is also freely done for us. Conversely, speaking or thinking ill of others is also speaking or thinking ill of ourselves. Saying that our hearts are truly in prayer for someone is not the same as actually praying for that person. Saying that we are loving and giving is far different than actually demonstrating love. Our actions speak louder than our words. Our church family, young and old, must be one spirit even though we are all individuals within it. When part of this spirit is ill, it affects the entire body of our church. Likewise when this spirit is soaring and happy, it will uplift everyone in our church body and also everyone we meet outside our church.

In summary, when you feel joy, please share it with all us. We need to hear and see your happiness. Likewise, when you feel down and out or feel discouraged or alone, you are not by yourself. You have our church family that will provide support in many different ways. Nothing is as powerful as the spirit of an individual person who wants to help others but nothing remotely comes close to the collective spirit of a group—a body of people—who want to help others. That is who we are. That is our POUCC Church family!

Blessings to all!

- Bob Brewster, Deacons

Incredible Food Corned Beef and Cabbage

"This is a great way to learn how to corn your own beef."

Ingredients

- 1 pound kosher salt
- 2 gallons water, divided
- 8 pounds beef brisket
- 6 bay leaves
- 8 black peppercorns
- 1 onion, chopped
- 1 medium head cabbage, quartered
- 1 pound carrots, sliced
- 1 turnip, chopped
- 1 teaspoon chopped fresh cilantro

Directions

1. In a large stainless steel or cast iron pot, combine the salt, water and brisket. (A large Zip lock bag works good too.) Cover and let sit for 7 days in the refrigerator. (Note: brisket must be completely submerged, so double the salt and water if necessary.)

2. After 7 days, drain the brine and add 1 gallon fresh water, bay leaves and peppercorns. Bring to a boil, reduce heat to low/medium low, and simmer for 3 to 3 1/2 hours.
3. During the last 45 minutes of cooking, add the onion, cabbage, carrots, turnip, cilantro, and potatoes. Continue simmering until all vegetables are tender.

The nutrition data for this recipe includes the full amount of the brine ingredients. The actual amount of the brine consumed will vary.

This is the story of four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. Consequently, it wound up that Nobody told Anybody, so Everybody blamed Somebody.
